Its Turtle Time

We haven't done a philanthropic project yet this year and we have received word via Cheryll that the storage shed at The Painted Turtle Camp where the "turtle pillows" were stored (along with other supplies) has burned to the ground and they have sent out an urgent request for replacement turtles asap.

In order to help out this good cause, we will make turtle pillows at our June meeting. Cheryll has the pattern and will make a couple copies for us to use.

What people need to bring is 1 yd of one fabric and 1/2 yard of another fabric. (Brighter the better boys and girls prints). Cheryll will bring extra fabric for those who are willing to invest their time and energy for a good cause. Bring your fabric, your machines, thread, scissors, marking pencils, pins and whatever else you think we will need to make the pillows.

Here is the camp website where you can see the pillows being loved by the children, find out what the camp is all about and even see the turtle pillow instructions.

Quilt Daze Quilt X show "Generations of Quilts" at the Yorba Linda Community Center.

August 16 & 17. This is the show we have agreed to participate in. We will have a 3 sided bay, 9 x 9 feet in which to display quilts from our guild. We can also sell tickets on the My Flower Patch Quilt. Even though this show is in August, the Yorba Linda Community Center is air conditioned and is very comfortable
